Initiating SROIs

PY

The first SROI transaction when one of the following is true:

1. The claim is medical only (no indemnity) and the total paid has reached and/or exceeded $1,000
2. The only payment made on the claim, besides medical, is for a Commission Awarded Lump Sum (Compromise Settlement or PPD awarded to be paid in a lump sum)
3. You are an acquiring CA and you are reporting your first payment of medical expenses

IP / EP

The first SROI when the first payment you are reporting is either for both medical and indemnity or just indemnity

AP

The first SROI when you are the acquiring CA and are reporting your first payment of indemnity benefits.

What BTC for PPD

030 / 090 / 230

BTCs used when the Commission awarded PPD to be paid weekly

530 / 590

BTCs used when the Commission awarded PPD to be paid in lump sum with the 4% discount taken

* NOTE: It does not matter how you, as the Claim Administrator, have decided to pay the benefit, weekly or in a lump sum. The code you use should be based on how the benefit is awarded by the Commission

Reminders

- ❖ The Commission stopped taking Claim Type Code effective 12/15/16. This was replaced with Injury Severity Type Code which is a mandatory field.
- ❖ E-mails do not count as a written response to any request seeking a transaction or explanation as to why a transaction was not filed.
